Welcome

Dear UKONS Members,

After an enforced 2-year gap UKONS will be particularly pleased to welcome our members, presenters, guests and sponsors to our first face to face conference since 2019. Of course, our two 'virtual' conferences have been successful and well-evaluated but there is no substitute for truly reconnecting with each other after the most challenging of times for cancer nursing.

UKONS strives to be the voice of cancer nursing across the four nations and so we are thrilled to be based in Belfast in 2022. Belfast is a vibrant city with a character and sense of style all of its own and we are particularly pleased to be on the doorstep of our UKONS members from Northern Ireland for this event.

The main theme of this year's conference is 'Cancer Care in the Digital Age' and we are tackling head-on some of the big challenges facing oncology nursing as we recover from the pandemic and adjust to new ways of working whilst maintaining quality of care for our patients. This is also reflected in our poster themes for this year which are 'Supportive Cancer Care in the Digital Age' 'Communicating with Patients in Modern cancer care' and 'The Future of Acute Cancer Care'. The posters are a personal highlight of every UKONS conference and represent the best of what our members can achieve. The conference is a brilliant and supportive environment in which to present posters and we are looking forward to seeing your work, so please submit a poster, particularly if you have not done so before.

Looking forward to welcoming you all to Belfast.

With best wishes

Mark Foulkes
UKONS President

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

To submit your abstract, go to www.ukons.org/events/ukons-annual-conference-2022/

UKONS members are invited to submit their abstracts for either a poster and/or an oral presentation. The theme of the conference is 'Cancer Care in the Digital Age'. The abstracts are to be submitted in one of the following categories:

- Supportive cancer care in the digital age
- Communicating with patients in modern cancer care
- The future of acute cancer care

Oral presentations and/or posters will be accepted that report original work relating to innovation to improve cancer patient experience and outcomes. The presenter should be involved in the original work.

Prizes will be awarded for the top three poster presentations as well as a prize for the best abstract by a YCN or Early Career Nurse. The author(s) should submit an abstract to Media1 Productions by 5pm on Friday 29 July 2022. Abstracts will be reviewed by the conference committee and chosen author(s) will be invited to display their posters at the conference.

To view the abstract guidelines, go to www.ukons.org/events/ukons-annual-conference-2022/
SUBMISSION DEADLINE IS FRIDAY 29TH JULY BY 5.00PM

We will confirm your registration in writing (the 'Confirmation'). The contract between us (the 'Contract') will only be formed when we send you the Confirmation. 3. Price and payment 3.1 The price of registering and reserving a place to attend the Conference will be as quoted, except in cases of obvious error. 4. Written communications 4.1 Applicable laws require that some of the information or communications we send to you should be in writing. We will contact you by email or provide you with information by posting notices on the UKONS website. For contractual purposes, you agree to this electronic means of communication and you acknowledge that all contracts, notices, information, and other communications that we provide to you electronically comply with any legal requirement that such communications be in writing. 4.2 All notices given by you to us must be given to Media 1 Productions Ltd, Clarence Mill, Clarence Road, Macclesfield SK10 5JZ. Tel: +44 (0)1926 6765333 Email: ukons@media1productions.co.uk. We may give notice to at either the email or postal address you provide to us when placing an order, or in any of the ways specified in this paragraph. 4.3 Notice will be deemed received and properly served immediately when posted on the UKONS website, 24 hours after an email is sent, or three days after the date of posting of any letter. In proving the service of any notice, it will be sufficient to prove, in the case of a letter, that such letter was properly addressed, stamped and placed in the post and, in the case of an email, that such email was sent to the specified email address of the addressee. 5. Transfer of rights and obligations 5.1 The contract between you and us is binding on you and us and on our respective successors and assigns. 5.2 You may not transfer, assign, charge or otherwise dispose of a Contract, or any of your rights or obligations arising under it, without our prior written consent. 5.3 We may transfer, assign, charge, sub-contract or otherwise dispose of a Contract, or any of our rights or obligations arising under it, at any time during the term of the Contract. 6. Events outside our control 6.1 We will not be liable or responsible for any failure to perform, or delay in performance of, any of our obligations under a Contract that is caused by events outside our reasonable control (Force Majeure Event). 6.2 A Force Majeure Event includes any act, event, non-happening, omission, or accident beyond our reasonable control and includes (without limitation) the following: 6.2.1 Strikes, lock-outs or other industrial action. 6.2.2 Civil commotion, riot, invasion, terrorist attack or threat of terrorist attack, war (whether declared or not) or threat or preparation for war. 6.2.3 Fire, explosion, storm, flood, earthquake, subsidence, epidemic or other natural disaster. 6.2.4 Impossibility of the use of railways, shipping, aircraft, motor transport or other means of public or private transport. 6.2.5 Impossibility of the use of public or private telecommunications networks. 6.2.6 The acts, decrees, legislation, regulations, or restrictions of any government. 6.3 Our performance under any Contract is deemed to be suspended for the period that the Force Majeure Event continues, and we will have an extension of time for performance for the duration of that period. We will use our reasonable endeavours to bring the Force Majeure Event to a close or to find a solution by which our obligations under the Contract may be performed despite the Force Majeure Event. 7. Waiver 7.1 If we fail, at any time during the term of a Contract, to insist upon strict performance of any of your obligations under the Contract or any of these terms and conditions, or if we fail to exercise any of the rights or remedies to which we are entitled under the Contract, this shall not constitute a waiver of such rights or remedies and shall not relieve you from compliance with such obligations. 7.2 A waiver by us of any default shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent default. 7.3 No waiver by us of any of these terms and conditions shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and is communicated to you in writing in accordance with paragraph 4.1 above. 8. If any of these terms and conditions or any provisions of a Contract are determined by any competent authority to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable to any extent, such term, condition or provision will to that extent be severed from the remaining terms, conditions and provisions which will continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by law. 9. Entire agreement 9.1 These terms and conditions and any document expressly referred to in them represent the entire agreement between us in relation to the subject matter of any Contract and supersede any prior agreement, understanding or arrangement between us, whether oral or in writing. 9.2 We each acknowledge that, in entering into a Contract, neither of us has relied on any representation, undertaking or promise given by the other or be implied from anything said or written in negotiations between us prior to such Contract except as expressly stated in these terms and conditions. 9.3 Neither of us shall have any remedy in respect of any untrue statement made by the other, whether orally or in writing, prior to the date of any Contract (unless such untrue statement was made fraudulently) and the other party's only remedy shall be for breach of contract as provided in these terms and conditions. 10. Our right to vary these terms and conditions 10.1 We have the right to revise and amend these terms and conditions from time to time. 10.2 You will be subject to the policies and terms and conditions in force at the time that you register and reserve a place to attend the Conference, unless any change to those policies or these terms and conditions is required to be made by law or governmental authority (in which case it will apply to orders previously placed by you), or if we notify you of the change to those policies or these terms and conditions before we send you the Confirmation (in which case we have the right to assume that you have accepted the change to the terms and conditions, unless you notify us to the contrary within seven working days of receipt by you of the Confirmation). 11. Law and jurisdiction. This Contract will be governed by English law. Any dispute arising from, or related to, such Contracts shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
